

ALLOT ANTI-TANK COMPANY TO HONDO

long anticipated National unit designated for Hondo closer to reality. Wednesday Charles S. Lee was named in command of the Anti-Tank Company of the 36th Division. A local photographer, serving the Air Corps during the recent war, and was stationed at Hondo part of the time. The Anti-Tank company will replace the Medical unit first scheduled for organization. Five officers will be needed eventually, and 76 enlisted men will fill out the group. For organization purposes, two officers will be needed, one other in addition to Lee. Ten enlisted men will also be needed. Good Job Open From a financial standpoint, the best job will be that of caretaker. One man will have full time duties as maintenance man and guard, and his base salary will be $2,190. In addition, this man is usually rated as a supply sergeant, and will draw enough extra drill pay to bring his wage up to more than $200 per month. The unit at full strength will have an annual payroll of around $40,000. Age limits for enlistments are from 17 to 35 for men with no previous military experience, and older men can get in if they have had experience. Officers may join between the ages of 21 and 28 for second lieutenants, 21 and 35 for first lieutenants, and 21 to 42 for the captain. Ranks will be assigned to the men according to their capabilities, their qualifications and their previous rank in service. Armory Now Available Provision has been made to turn over a suitable building at the airfield to the unit when organization is final, and the National Guard will maintain the building in good repair after accepting it from the War Assets Administration. More details on how to get in the local unit will be given next week.

election on the incorporation of Castroville scheduled for Thursday of this week, about 125 citizens and some visitors of the communities met Tuesday at Wernette's Garden in a session which included personalities as well as ideas.

Castrovilleans who voiced opinions in the meeting spoke of the issue with the ex-of J. T. Lawler, owner of present water works. Lawler has always been in favor of municipal ownership of utilities. He had documentary evidence to prove it, but that he felt that the people were not informed for an election at this time. It was quickly pointed out that the townspeople were working on the matter for years, especially during the last four, and it was no fly-by-night idea. He advanced no other argument against the issue although he had opposition throughout the meeting. On the other side of the issue were the bulk of the citizens, apparently, who seemed to be of the opinion that the incorporation would be a burden on the town, but that he thought the benefits would far outweigh any disadvantages.

serious immediate consequence of the incorporation is the loss of the town's name. Dr. Williamson said that if it passed he would close his clinic and move elsewhere. He pointed out that he had the clinic for the good of the people, and in the twelve years he had been there no benefit had been taken, any benefits that had been made from the pockets of the town.

ing lasted about an hour and a half, with Father Lenzen pointing out that people hold no animosity against each other because of differing ideas. Incorporation would permit the City of Castroville to buy the electric system and issue bonds through issuance of bonds which entail no taxation. The City of San Antonio currently owns the electric system but has sold an option to the Medina Electric Co-Op for $100,000. If Castroville incorporates, the Co-Op reports it will construct the city's purchase.

ANVIL HERALD'S NEW HOME IS STARTED THIS WEEK; WILL HOUSE NEW EQUIPMENT

Ground was broken this week on the southeast corner of Avenue K and 16th streets across from the Methodist church, for the new home of The Hondo Anvil Herald. Local contractor started work on the foundation this week, and a building from the Hondo Airfield, formerly one of the officer's mess halls, will be moved on to the foundation before Christmas, barring unforeseen difficulties. The new building measures 130 feet long and 34 feet wide, and will furnish ample room for necessary offices and printing departments as well as storing space. A fast newspaper press will be moved into the new building as soon as it is ready, a new automatic feed job press to replace the present hand fed "jobber" at The Anvil Herald shop, an offset press and a mimeograph. Also planned is a complete office supply store to be located in the front of the building. Move was made necessary by the extremely cramped conditions at the present shop, occasioned by personnel and equipment increases. The new shop will be laid out scientifically for economy of movement, with traffic routes figured beforehand to minimize head-on collisions among various members of the staff as they scurry about their various duties. The newspaper printing department will be located apart from type cases, imposing stones and presses used for job work.

Mrs. J. H. Brown Dies At Devine After Injury

By Mrs. Joy Tilley
DEVINE — Mrs. Jno. F. Brown, pioneer mother of this section, passed away at her home in Devine after illness of three weeks. Mrs. Brown sustained a fractured hip as a result of a fall and was confined to her bed. Complications set in and she passed away Friday, Oct. 24 at the age of 86.

Mrs. Brown came to Texas from Decatur, Illinois in 1875. The family settled on a ranch near Moore, where Mrs. Brown, Nee Allura Conover, lived until her marriage to Jno. F. Brown at the age of 15.

Wednesday Rain Total .63 Inch

There was joy in Medina County and southwest Texas generally Wednesday morning when the rain clouds finally came and distributed meager to generous portions all the way from San Angelo to Laredo.

In Hondo the rainfall totaled 0.63 inches and varied up to 0.80 inches in the northern part of the county. While not enough to restore our lowering water table, at least it was wet and helped out a lot. Farmers are hoping for more though, soon.

In Hondo it was the first rain in six weeks, according to the records of H. E. Haass. Our last rainfall was a third of an inch on Sept. 15, and before that there was a two day total on Aug. 25 and 26 of one and a tenth inches.

Claim Of School May Help

Hope "Peaceful Possession" Will Provide Site

One way or another, the City of Hondo plans soon to own the plaza across from the front of the county courthouse.

City Council has voted to purchase the railroad's interest in the property for the proposed City Hall and Post Office, but the purchase is to be held in abeyance pending outcome of a claim of the Hondo school district.

Possibly the school can take over the property in a "peaceful possession" process by proving that it has used it for a period of time and during which time no taxes were paid by any of the owners. If so, the school can then sell the property to the city in its entirety. Otherwise the city will go ahead and purchase the railroad's third and take steps to get the remainder.

WEATHER, OVERSEAS SHIPMENTS BOOST WHEAT; EGGS STEADY POULTRY WEAKENS, CATTLE SAME

Late losses on grain and cotton markets pointed up generally unsettled conditions on southwest farm markets last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Spot cotton sales again topped all previous weeks of the current season, as farmers sold more freely. Prices rose early but lost Friday to close $3 a bale up.

Dry weather in winter wheat areas and heavy buying for overseas shipment raised wheat early, and Friday's break left a week's gain of 5 cents. The same dry weather hastened maturity and drying of the corn crop, and marketings increased. Late-week corn

Another confirmed believer in the power of those little classified ads is W. T. Hardy. He had been trying to rent out a floor polisher for several months, and no one was interested. You can get the job done the same way. If there is something you want to sell, to buy, to rent or to lease, let Medina County know about it with an ad in the paper.

losses erased early gains, while oats, barley and sorghums also closed lower.

Rice markets made further gains during the past week. Some feed ingredients fell, but formula feeds still found good demand. Alfalfa hay showed a slightly weaker tone, while prairie hay advanced $1 per ton. Light commercial demand forced most farmers' stock peanuts into government warehouses. Wool met greater demand.

Egg prices held up well in the Southwest, but hens and young chickens weakened at most markets. Fryers ranged generally from 31 to 36 cents per pound, and heavy hens mostly 22 to 28 cents except at New Orleans which paid 30 to 31. Seasonally light receipts of turkeys sold mostly at or near government support prices.

Midweek snow and freezing temperatures cut supplies on Denver's farmers' market, and prices rose sharply. Onions and potatoes held steady to firm at shipping points, but many growers held for higher prices. Potatoes and lettuce found unsettled markets at Fort Worth, with tomatoes firm, and Texas citrus fruits trending lower. Light receipts at New Orleans sold mostly steady in fair trading. Low demand made dull markets for sweet potatoes in producing and consuming centers.

Most cattle markets closed the week about unchanged, but Oklahoma City gained strength, while weakness developed on slaughter classes at Denver and on Brannan stocker calves at Houston. Denver sold low good to average choice steers at $25 to $32.25, and Wichita moved medium and good steers at $19 to $24.50. Common to medium steers and yearlings brought $10.00 to $18.50 at Houston, $15 to $19 at San Antonio, $13 to $20 at Fort Worth, and $17 to $24 at Oklahoma City.

Hog prices slumped around $1 per hundred pounds during the past week. Good and choice medium weight butcher hogs sold late in the week around $27.75 at San Antonio, $28 at Fort Worth, $28 to $28.50 at Oklahoma City, $27.25 to $27.50 at Wichita, and $27.50 to $27.75 at Denver. Sows ranged mostly from $25 to $26.50.

Lambs gained sharply at most southwest markets. Fort Worth and Oklahoma City advanced around

$2.50 and Wichita $4, with Denver as much as $1.75 higher and San Antonio mostly unchanged. Slaughter ewes went up mainly

25 to 75 cents, while feeder lambs sold steady to $1 higher at Fort Worth. Goats weakened at San Antonio.

Chick Chatter

MUMME'S HATCHERY HONDO, TEXAS

LICE, MITES ARE SERIOUS PROBLEM

Few poultry flocks are free of lice or mites; many are infested heavily with the tiny creatures.

It behooves every poultryman to examine the birds in his flock regularly and to take steps to get rid of external parasites when they are detected. For these pests can cause considerable economic loss among poultry flocks.

Species Of Lice

There are many species of lice, but those that cause the most trouble are the common body louse, shaft louse, head louse, and wing louse. All of these lice live continuously on the chicken's skin or feathers and use the fowl's body as a source of food.

When examining a bird for lice, part the feathers on the back of the fowl's head, along the back, under the wings, and around the vent. These are the regions in which lice infestations usually are heaviest. If you see small brownish or gray-ish insects or grayish-white mites you should treat the birds immediately with a reliable dousing preparation.

Mites Are Hard To Find

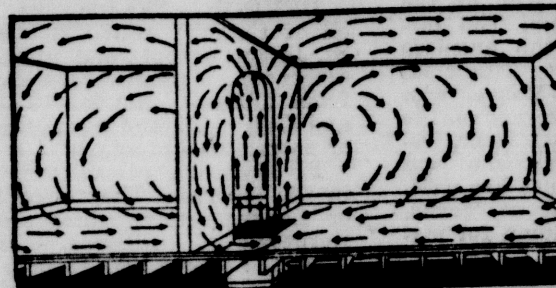

Unlike lice, poultry mites live in cracks and crevices of the poultry house and crawl onto the chicken's body when it is their time to feed. Generally, they spend the day in their hiding place and emerge at night to feed on the birds' bodies while the flock is on the roosts. Mites are difficult to find. Unless gorged with blood, which gives them a red appearance, they are of gray color and often even a thorough examination of the house will not reveal their presence to one who is unfamiliar with their appearance. Mites are usually only 1-32 of an inch in length.

Apparently, one of the best and most effective means for controlling mites is through the use of commercial mite-killing surface paints. Preparations of this kind are painted onto surfaces within a poultry house, and mites die when they contact the residue.

MODERN LIVING CLAIMS VICTIMS

Bort, refined foods and lack of exercise are responsible for increasing thousands of constipation victims. Intestinal muscles become sluggish, waste matter accumulates and gas is formed. Often there is a tired, restless, listless feeling. It's cases like this that the new improved ADLERIKIA is designed to help. This scientifically compounded Tonic-Up laxative is quickly absorbed by the gastro-intestinal system; it relieves gas pressure and waste matter is moved gently through the digestive canal. When you eat well and digest your food well, you'll find a new joy in living. Order a bottle of ADLERIKIA today.

Caution: use only as directed.

Idle Owls Are Good Team But Afraid To Believe It; Set Sights On Del Rio

With the midpoint of District 37-A football past, Hondo's Owls find most of their season still before them as they cling to the slim, mathematical chance of ending up as district champs. The Owls have played only two district games, winning the first on penetrations against Devine and losing the second to Uvalde's Coyotes, and must still face Del Rio, Carrizo Springs and Eagle Pass.

The Owls, however, have a lot of "realizing" to do if they expect to win some more games. First, they must realize that Curt Braden is probably gone for the season and Coach Bridges is doing more worrying about Curt's coming out of it with a good knee than he is about what game he will play. The Owls might as well say goodbye to Curt Braden.

With that realization accomplished, it's time for them to stop fighting the problem and start playing football, because they've got what it takes. If Curt were something discrete from the rest of the team, like an apple or an egg which, when subtracted from 11 leaves 10, his loss would not be as serious. But it's more than that. Curt was the offensive spark, and as such was a great morale factor. Not only that, the other team had to spend all their time worrying about him and it gave other Owl backs a better chance. Curt was also a phenomenal line-backer. He could sense plays and be there, he could drive and he could hit and when he hit the runner he didn't get away. Now Curt's out, and the Owls must start to realize that they're good anyway.

There are such things as one man teams, but the Owls aren't one of them unless they make it so themselves. The boys are heavy and tough in the line, and at times they look brilliant. John Earl Boca moved back from the line, has proven he is a good enough offensive back to be dangerous on any field. Alderete, though only a freshman, has shown speed and ability that can make scores in any game. With Amberson and Carle rounding it out, Hondo has a creditable backfield even without Braden.

Against Burnet the Owls looked brilliant. They kept their eyes open when they tackled and when they blocked. They CAN be just as brilliant when they take on Del Rio — once they realize they are a team, a good team, and when they realize that an easy confidence can do more for them than tension any time.

It's a long trail this season to the championship. But suppose Uvalde loses to Carrizo Springs as they very possibly can do. Suppose, further, that they lose a key man in the loss and it causes another loss. If Hondo, then, goes through the rest of the season undefeated, as they can do, Hondo can end up in a playoff for the crown. These things do happen, these losses of key men — it happened to us.

It's a long trail, but the Hondo Owls are just as much or it as anybody, and the city of Hondo is right there backing them up.

Myrtle Weiblen Chosen LaCoste Football Queen

LACOSTE — The LaCoste Eagles chose Miss Myrtle Weiblen for their Sweetheart for 1947 and presented her to the public just before their game with the Natalia Mustangs, Friday night, Oct. 24, 1947.

Miss Weiblen is a senior of the LaCoste high school and is popular with the entire student body. She was chosen from the following candidates: Franette Bryant, Dorothy Kalafa, Irene Koenig, Bonnie Heck and Shirley Griffin.

In the presentation the captains of the team, Leroy Lutz and Leroy Keller, advanced from the center of the field to the south goal where they were greeted by the pep squad with the song, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". As the captains drew near, the girls fell back and revealed a large football mounted on a small wagon in which Miss Weiblen was concealed. The wagon was drawn to the center of the field by the captains where they were greeted in song with words appropriate to the occasion sung to the tune of "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain." The entire team advanced to form a semicircle around the captains and the Sweetheart. Miss Weiblen was then revealed to the audience and received a kiss from each boy on the team. She was then formally introduced to the crowd by Superintendent Matt Bader. Mr. Bader presented the Sweetheart with a large red heart inscribed in white letters with LaCoste's Eagles' Sweetheart, 1947.

Sweetheart Myrtle Weiblen was then escorted to a place of honor to watch the conference game between her LaCoste Eagles and the Natalia Mustangs. Her team honored her with a victory of 34-12.

25 Hopefuls Try Out At Cardinal Camp

About 25 baseballers, half of them from Medina County, tried out at the recent St. Louis Cardinal camp held in Hondo last week and while no man was signed the camp was called a "decided success."

Card scouts seemed particularly interested in J. E. and Herb Boon of Hondo, Horace Langfield of D'Hanis and H. E. Moore of Utopia, although there may have been others also who excited their interest.

Trying out from Hondo were Leslie Williams, the boon boys, Manuel Arcos, Elena Diaz and Pete Morales; from D'Hanis, Langfield; from Quihi, Jay Hartman, Harold Bohlen and Calvin Schott. There were two aspirants from Devine whose names were not obtained. Other Utopians included Buck Tampke, Burt McNair and Jack McClain.

In a letter to the Hondo Chamber of Commerce, Cardinal Nick Geer praised the cooperation and interest encountered in Hondo. His letter follows:

"Dear Mr. Webster:
"The try-out camp in Hondo this past week was a decided success. Though no player was tendered a contract at the time, we now have an idea of what the boys can do; and you may be certain that several of them will hear from us again.

"I want to thank you for your help and splendid cooperation in the affair. It is a pleasure to work in a community where the people are as friendly and cooperative as you have been. I sincerely hope that it will be my pleasure to return to Hondo some day for a longer stay.

Sincerely,
(Signed) Charles "Nick" Geer

"BEST EVER" SAYS NORTON OF STAN HOLLMIG'S GREAT PUNTING

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Oct. 27 — "That was the best punting I have seen in my 14 years on the Southwest Conference."

Head Coach Homer Norton, busy getting the Aggies ready for the game with Arkansas next Saturday, was referring to the amazing kicking performance by Stanley "Hondo" Hollmig during the Texas A & M's 24-0 victory over the Baylor Bears Saturday at Kyle Field.

"There's no question about it. Hollmig's kicking was one of the main factors instrumental in our victory over Baylor," Norton added.

About 22,000 fans and especially the heretofore undefeated Bears probably will agree with Norton 100 percent.

An account of the quarterback's performance even puts many fiction stories to shame.

Ten times Hollmig punted. His average of 43.8 was a half yard better than the mark which won him the top Southwest Conference laurels last year, but Saturday that average was secondary.

Seven times Hollmig kicked out of bounds and never did the ball go out farther away from the goal than the 11-yard line. Twice the Baylor safety retrieved the leather, once from the six and again from the 10.

Hollmig's first kick was his shortest and worst. It traveled 25 yards before going out of bounds on the Baylor 11. Then he booted one 50 yards out on the seven.

In the second quarter he hit the two-yard line from 43 steps away. Then he quick-kicked 50 yards to the safety on the six.

It was the same story in the third. A 56-yarder went out on the four, one for 28 yards sailed out on the 11 and one for 46 yards gave Baylor the ball on the six.

Only two kicks were needed in the last quarter. The safety picked up a quitting 47-yard kick on the 10 before Hollmig got off his final one for 41 yards out of bounds on the 11.

"Hondo", as his mates call him, was "off form" on that unaccounted for tenth kick. It was the last play of the first quarter. The line of scrimmage was on the A & M 26 when Hollmig called his own number for a quick-kick.

The ball headed for the red flag 74 yards away as if it had eyes. It hit the ground on about the Baylor 30 and continued on end-over-end, but Hollmig got credit for only a 54-yard kick. The ball went into the endzone, missing the red corner marker by less than a yard.

Crow's aunt, Mrs. J. F. Brown at Devine Saturday.

Miss Viola Wiemers attended a meeting at the Methodist Church at Uvalde Tuesday night.

USE CHLORDANE The Crop-Safe Insecticide

Chlordane insecticides get the bugs without hurting your crops. For truck gardens, here is the most effective insect toxicant yet developed. Deadly to most common pests. Consistently gives kills of 95 to 100%. Yet, when properly applied, Chlordane does not injure even such delicate crops as squash and melon vines. Residue volatilizes completely in 2 or 3 weeks. May be used with standard fungicides.

Chlordane is available in many commercial brands of insecticides—in wettable powders, dusts, and emulsions. Ask your local dealer for them today. Be sure the label states plainly "contains Chlordane" or "contains Octa-Klor" (trade name for Chlordane). THERE ARE NO SUBSTITUTES.

If your local dealer cannot yet supply you with insecticides containing Chlordane, write us direct for the name of a dealer who can.

NATALIA MUSTANGS DEFEAT FREDERICKSBURG — LOSE TO LACOSTE EAGLES

NATALIA — Fresh from a 16 victory over the St. Mary's Indians of Fredericksburg, the Natalia Mustangs were defeated by the heavier LaCoste Eagles at Uvalde Friday night by a score 34-12.

Buddy Menck took a pass from Guevara for the first score for the Mustangs, and Ed Richardson took a pass from Menck in the end zone for the second tally. Guevara, Menck, Van, and Richardson showed up well on offense while Clint Richardson, Pritchard, and Mill in the line were strong on defense. Hagen played a steady game in the backfield with his accurate passing.

The Mustangs play the St. Louis High School Comets of Castville a return game this week at Natalia. In the first game between these two teams, the Mustangs were victorious 22-6. The Comets have been steadily improving under the coaching of Clifford Sadler, and this game promises to be a good one. On Thursday night, Nov. 6, the Mustangs meet the powerful Catarina Yellow Jackets at Dilley in a night game. Final game of the season will be with the La Pryor Bulldogs at Pryor Nov. 14.

HONDO'S FIRST ORGANIZATION FOR PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE

After proceedings of this Oct. meeting was the order to pay away Bros. balance due on Ladder, a matter that dragged over considerable time for erecting the fire house received at the Nov. 15 meeting as follows: G. T. Elder, $75.; Robinson, $55 and T. McCall $50. Bids for lumber were: Hudspeth $140.80 and Lumber Co. $129.50. The bid of Robinson and the Hondo Fire Co. were accepted.

At a meeting of Nov. 30, 15 days after accepting the report of Brown, Elder and Bless that the house was completed as per specifications and ordered the contractor to begin work.

The Fire Department was now housed in a building of its own at 184.50. This two-story frame structure served as the meeting place and storage space for the department's equipment for many years, or until the commodious building near the Baptist church was erected a few years ago in a period of only a little over a year's time what had existed in the minds of a few thoughtful people only as an idea that a town needed and could have organized and equipped agency coping with the fire hazard grown into a reality. While minutes are silent on that point—and on the contrary, there frequent entries of "Fire Department reports no fires"—it is remembered that the Department answered many calls and rendered efficient service, considering the means at hand, a service that has grown more efficient with training and equipment has moved, until Hondo's Volunteer Department is the pride of the town and the envy of less fortunate neighboring towns. Of the little band of pioneers who met at the courthouse that morning in July 1909, and laid the basis for the Department we

BUILT ON A CEMETERY?

Eagle Passans are beginning to wonder if their city was built on a cemetery. Four human skulls have been found on the sites of two new Main street buildings, according to the News Guide, at a depth of about 30 inches. Skulls and other bones have been found frequently in the past, says the News Guide, and under its own building was found a complete skeleton with boots.

MAYBE A FIRE TRUCK

Carrizo Springs opened up a whirlwind drive toward a $7,000 goal for a new fire truck after fire nearly wiped out one section of town a few weeks ago, but the drive bogged down at slightly over the $6,000 mark three weeks ago and has hardly budged since. Last hope is the VFW rodeo, for the VFW will donate half of their proceeds toward the truck.

LOTS OF TOMATOES

With the Florida tomato crop partially destroyed by recent storms, tomato growers in the La Pryor area are anticipating top prices for their crop this year, one of the largest ever planted. Negotiations already have been completed for six packing sheds to operate in the town, according to the Zavala Sentinel.

Anvil Sparks

Let the Sparks fly where they will, for the truth is forged with fire!
Let the Sparks burn where they fall, for the truth is not for hire!

By The Editor

The Anvil Herald has devoted much thought, effort and space toward explaining the advantages of trading at home in our own county.

So it is doubly discouraging to look at the courthouse records and find out how often Medina County firms are ignored when certain County officials buy merchandise.

According to the finance records, $440.91 was sent to Sears Roebuck & Co. this year for saws and tires. On three separate occasions, a total of $705.97 was paid to the San Antonio Firestone store for tires and repairs on tires for county vehicles.

There are at least three distributors of nationally known tires in Medina County, and dozens of dealers for tires. Shovels haven't been too hard to get this year, and quite a few hardware stores would like to sell them to the county. And if nothing will do but Firestone tires, the distributor across the street from the courthouse would appreciate being asked about them.

In case you don't understand why we are running the current series of "Trade At Home" advertisements on our editorial page, these figures may give you the answer.

It is true that salesmen from some out of town firms frequently call on the officials, and make it very easy to do business. However, it is surely not too much to expect our county officials to pick up a telephone — or even put their head out the window and yell — when they want to buy shovels or tires.

We wonder how much taxes Sears & Roebuck and the San Antonio Firestone store pays in Medina County? One thing is certain, that Medina County dealers do help to support the men who send their tax money far, far away. They pay for these purchases, and they would like to see more of them made at home.

Now we may be all wet. Perhaps the custom of other counties is to make their purchases away from home too — BUT we would appreciate hearing from any merchant in Medina County who has recently sold goods to Bexar County or the city of San Antonio.

The Hondo Airfield Properties commission has posted a list of service stations in the fire house on the airfield. The order preceding the list states that the gasoline and oil purchases for the trucks and equipment used on the airfield will be rotated among the stations listed during the months to come.

This is a fine example of how public bodies should operate when spending public funds. The Airfield Properties commission deserves commendation for their forethought.

Peanuts Bring Support Price

Peanut digging and picking went forward actively in the southwestern states during the past week under favorable weather conditions, the Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Movement of farmers' stock peanuts was going largely to Commodity Credit Corporation at government support prices. Shellers bought little, as shelled goods found slow demand with a rather weak undertone to the market. Most carlot trading went at 16 1-4 cents per pound for shelled No. 1 Spanish, with some pool cars at 16 1-2 cents, and distress cars as low as 16.

Peanut crushing continued at a seasonally low rate. Oil sold strong at 24 cents per pound, basis prime crude 1. o. b. at the mill, and meal remained about steady at $88 to $89 per ton in bagged carlots.

Peanuts in the southwestern states and in the Virginia-Carolina region suffered some damage recently from hot, humid, rainy weather. Many stacked peanuts became discolored, while undug or unstacked fields were even more seriously damaged.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marshall

Sam's a Matrimony Expert

Sam Abernathy never intended to be a matrimony expert, but he hit the nail on the head the other day when he said:

"What marriage really needs is more open minds and a lot fewer open mouths."

Sam may not think much of his missus' choice of hats or her habit of serving watercress and cream cheese salad. But he keeps his mouth shut (I mean, he just uses it to eat the salad). And the missus never criticizes Sam's affection for that worn-out chair before the fire, f and his mellow glass of beer at pipe at the end of a long day.

From where I sit, that prescription would apply to most human relationships. Criticism rouses anything but resentment. But an open mind—whether it applied to a woman's choice of hats, or a husband's preference for a pipe and a moderate glass of beer or two—leads to the conclusion that there's right on both sides.

Substitutes For Meat? Here Are Some Answers

COLLEGE STATION — Home-makers are as anxious as anyone else to help out in the government's food conservation program, but when it comes right down to planning menus for meatless days, the questions that are hard to answer are "What will take the place of meat? Will the family like it?"

Louise Mason, food preparation specialist of the Texas A & M College Extension Service, says that meatless Tuesdays may develop into more of a problem in the home than poultryless Thursdays, because most families plan two and sometimes three meals a day around meat. Take the meat away and the gap that is left in the menu is mighty hard to fill.

Wholesome menus for meatless days are not impossible, however, and to prove her point, Miss Mason has several suggestions. Irish potato pancakes can be substituted at the breakfast table for the usual main dish... they are delicious with either honey or syrup, and take the place of toast, flour pancakes, or bacon- or ham-and-eggs. For a noon-day meal, there's macaroni ring with creamed salmon the 8-oz. can of salmon will serve six, which is an important thing to remember in these days of high prices. For supper, few people can resist the sight of a fluffy, piping hot cheese omelet.

The addition of fruit, fresh and cooked vegetables to each of these main dishes will provide appetizing as well as nutritious meals.

Editor's Corner

Hondo has been waiting for a long time for a city park, is still waiting, but it looks as though a park will materialize before very long.

Both the Lions club and the Jaycees have been talking about dressing up the park plaza into something worthy of the name, with recreational facilities for children and seating and visiting facilities for grown-ups. The city may be planning to do something on the matter, judging from the remarks made at a recent council meeting.

One thing is sure: there will be a park in that spot unless some organized block stops it. We don't know who that block would be, but they seem to spring up from behind the bushes whenever an improvement issue comes up.

And while discussing the park, there are a number of related subjects worth mentioning. For one thing, there is the courthouse square which figured so prominently in the news a week ago. As a baseball field it is not necessarily an eyesore, but it is certainly an eyesore the way it is now, with the ram-shackle fence around it catching every wayward scrap of paper the wind happens to blow by. Perhaps soon the city will have the property and will take steps to build upon it and landscape the ground. When this happens it will be a great boon to the city of Hondo. But that is probably some time off. Even if it were only a matter of months, something should be done right now to improve its appearance.

The fence should be repaired and repainted. The papers should be cleared away at least once a week or oftener. Everyone who comes to Hondo sees that ugly plot of ground, and it gives our visitors a mighty poor impression of our city. Worse yet, it's an eyesore to us and this is our home. We don't keep our living rooms in that condition, why keep our town that way? This is something for the city to do, and do now. It is not for any civic organization, if the city does not do it, probably some organization will, but the city government will gain no stature for things they will not do.

Nor does it seem too much to expect a bit of pleasantness on the highway at the stop light. People who drive through Hondo on Highway 90 see nothing to Hondo but the weeds and a few highway buildings. The view over to our main business street certainly is not edifying, with all the outmoded building fronts which certainly do not suggest to shoppers that they can obtain modern service within. Cutting the weeds or painting the buildings is not enough. A garden spot around the SP station would make a pleasant and memorable impression on travelers. As it is now, there is either a poor impression or none at all. And the buildings along the main street should have their fronts remodeled.

Sure it takes money, but the only way to improve business is to improve business houses. Pick any one of the 10 or 20 greatest retail business houses in Texas, and you will find that business in a modern building.

Or — look at the color advertisements in every magazine. It would be much cheaper to run those ads in black and white. Color costs more, but returns more. In the same way, improving a town and its business houses costs money, but returns more.

still live, there is pleasure for us all in seeing how well has grown the creation of our minds and hands so modestly begun that summer night in 1909.

The minute book contains a record of the meetings of the Department up to and including the meeting of June 9, 1913, or altogether over the first four years of its existence. During the entire period there was a constant change in personnel, many new members coming with some dropping out.

At the 1910 election in July, Fulton as president and Bless as Chief were re-elected. J. B. Hurt was elected Assistant Chief; J. N. Henderson, secretary; F. A. Martin, treasurer; George Neuman, Foreman of Hook and Ladder Wagon; and L. A. Mechler, Foreman of Chemical Engine. Fulton and Neuman were succeeded by John L. Mechler and W. F. Miller as president and Foreman of Hook and Ladder Wagon at the November meeting.

The 1912 election resulted in the following selection: C. J. Bless, Fire Chief; Ed Ney, Assistant Chief; L. A. Mechler, president; Felix Batot, secretary; Fritz Martin, treasurer; J. J. Droicourt, F. Woods, Assistant; and J. Norton Henderson, Foreman Hook and Ladder Truck and Sid Carter, assistant. During the tenure of these officers a new and larger chemical engine was purchased.

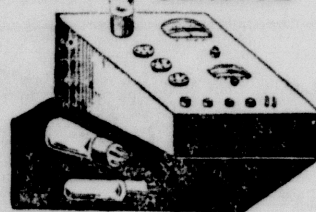

The last page of the book contains the minutes of the night of the annual fifth regular election on July 14, 1913.

Bless, Batot, Martin and Droicourt were each re-elected as Chief, secretary, treasurer and Foreman of Chemical Engine No. 1 respectively. Ed Ney was elected president; C. A. Johnson, Assistant Chief; Wm. Ney, Foreman of Hook and Ladder Truck and Sid Carter, Assistant; Chas. Schuehle, Assistant on Engine No. 1; and John L. Mechler, Foreman on Chemical Engine No. 2 with L. A. Mechler as assistant.

And with the end of the story of the first four years of our Fire Department's rise and growth told, we write at the end of our review —

"Finis."

CASE OF THE LOCAL SCHOOL TEACHER

One Texas Town Gets Results In Its Own Way

It is reported that a pretty young school teacher, about a week after she arrived in a West Texas town to begin her fall term in the city schools, received a type-written anonymous note — very business like, brief and specific — which read, "We expect you to trade in Marfa." Evidently the town which paid her salary felt she had a certain responsibility, which she might overlook if it were not brought to her attention.

The fact that many thousands of dollars are paid annually to School Superintendents, Principals, and Teachers, and that this money is raised by taxation alone, should lead this well paid group to do most of its buying in the town that pays its salaries; to support the town and taxpayers who support them.

Citizens notice these things.

The amount of money spent on such salaries must finally be determined by the ability of the taxpayers to pay. The general prosperity of a town is determined by its trade. The more trade, the higher property values grow, and then larger tax levies are possible when needed to support larger local school budgets. Send or spend local money out of town, and business lags, property values decrease, and the ability of taxpayers to pay slumps greatly. Budgets and salaries might have to be cut. Persons move away. Jobs become fewer. A dead town results from continued slowing down of local business, especially the spending of Hometown citizens. Good business is merely the loyal support of local business by local citizens.
